LOUISVILLE:

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1855.

The Jeffersonville Railroad is the direct route between Louisville, St. Louis, Cairo, Kansas, Chicago, Springfield, Decatur and the principal cities in the West and Northwest.

Trains on this route form close connection at Seymour with trains on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, St. Louis and the West, and Cincinnati and the East; also at Indianapolis with the different roads for all places East, West and North.

Only one change of cars between Louisville and St. Louis, Cincinnati or Chicago. Baggage checked to all the principal cities. For time and further particulars examine advertisement in another column of this paper.

Through tickets given to all the principal cities on the Missouri and Mississippi rivers; also to all the principal places in the East, West and North.

Office No. 527, southeast corner Main and Third streets, Louisville, Ky., where travelers can examine map and get further correct information.

Eighth of January Convention.

An arrangement has been made with the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad Company, to take the delegates to the Democratic Convention at Frankfort on the 8th of January, for four dollars the round trip; and a train will leave Frankfort on Sunday morning, the 9th, to bring the delegates back.

The delegates from all the counties below are invited to unite with the Louisville delegation, and go up on Friday evening, and return on Sunday morning.

A few days since the Chicago Herald published an extract from our Washington correspondence, and credited it to the Louisville Journal, and the Evansville Inquirer credited it a like extract to the Louisville Democrat. Our exchanges should be more careful to see that they will give credit where it properly belongs. It is doing injustice to our two contemporaries to impute to them such sound, national, conservative and purely Democratic sentiments as were contained in the articles from the Courier above alluded to.

A SOONER.—Our excellent Washington correspondent "Oscillation," makes a suggestion in his letter this morning that is worthy of consideration. He proposes that as no general convention of the Democracy for the nomination of State candidates will be held after the 8th of January next, previous to the Charleston Convention, it will be proper for the convention now about to assemble to perform that duty. We should like to have the views of our Democratic contemporaries upon the proposition.

A MISSION.—We have been publishing for some time the name of our valued friend, Herman Bowman, as a candidate for Register of the Land Office, as Bowman. Now, Bowman is a very respectable cogenitor, but our old acquaintance, the Democratic candidate, prefers that of Bowman, since he inherited it from an honorable and distinguished ancestry. Therefore, let it be known that Herman Bowman, of Woodford, is the candidate for Register of the Land Office.

A PATRIOTIC APPEAL.—We publish in another column an earnest and stirring appeal from Mrs. Ross Verter Johnson, to the men and women of Kentucky, to aid in the purchase of the land containing the tomb of Washington. Let all the thousands of readers of the Courier read the gifted lady's appeal, and then forthwith forward their patriotic contributions to her. We do not doubt but that Kentucky will fully and faithfully perform her duty in the premises.

PETTY LARCENY.—Most of the account of the Masonic demonstration, that appeared in the local columns of the Journal yesterday, was copied from the Cincinnati Commercial of the day previous. That is an easy way to get it.

MR. BEN. HARRISON has commenced the publication, at Uniontown, Ky., of the "Weekly News." It is a neatly printed and sprightly paper, and has our best wishes for its success.

"DIED AT THE POST OF DUTY."—The Vanderbilt steamer Ariel, whose passage from Havre has been the longest and roughest of the season, arrived at the port of New York on Sunday. Capt. Ludlow, the commander, was killed during a storm on the voyage, it will be remembered, the following extract from the "log" will relate the particulars:

On Dec. 8th, at 11 A. M., the ship settled deeply in the trough of a high swell, and tremendous waves broke over the deck. Capt. Ludlow, at the instant, was cautioned by the second mate, who was standing near him, to "look out," but he had scarcely spoken the words when all were suddenly thrown ten feet under water, and the instant it was thought that the steamer had founders. The main hatch was broken in by the sea, and many tons of water went below. Ludlow, however, though half dead with fatigue, was saved by the efforts of his crew, and was brought to the surface, when he was found lying upon his back, with his cap washed off, his eyes closed, and apparently dead. In this condition he was conveyed to his room. He revived sufficiently to speak a few words, the last of which were, "Tell the Commodore I died at the post of duty." He then sank back and expired. The injury was apparently on the left side, two or three of the ribs being broken, and fragments penetrating the heart.

RUM KNOWING CONVENTION.—The New York Herald of Wednesday says,

Contributions for the Poor.—Since the establishment of the "Poor-Purse," I have received the following sums:

$5 00 Mr. Anderson per Mrs. Brown. 3 00 In a letter signed F., through post office. 5 00 M. B. 50 Mrs. Lockerman 20 Mr. Wm. Richardson 2 00 Mrs. Brigham 5 00

Also for the Sunday School children, from Mrs. Anderson, $100.00 for new garments. For the Industrial Sewing School, from Mrs. A. S. Semple, several remnants of dry goods.

I would respectfully solicit appropriations for our Industrial Sewing School, which, by the zeal and energy of a number of ladies, is doing a good work for a class of children who much require to be given full and public expression to their patriotic purposes.

ROAST.—Moses Bailey, an employee at the Washington Foundry, Baltimore, was accidentally killed in the furnace of that establishment, on Tuesday afternoon. He had been sent into the furnace to attend to something, and fell into the furnace, over which it is supposed, by the fumes of the charcoal.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY,
SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS.

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases incident to the female constitution.

These pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage; but at every other time, and in every other case, they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervousness and Spinal Affection, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Headiness, Fatigue or slight Headache, Paroxysms of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Distress of Mind, Headache, Whites, and all the various diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed.

Fall directions in the pamphlet around each package which should be carefully preserved.

A bottle containing fifty pills, and enriched with the Government stamp of Great Britain, can be sent post free for $1 and six postage stamps.
